ORDER REMANDING<sup>1</sup>

On September 27, 2018, the National Labor Relations Board issued a Notice to Show Cause why the Board should not revoke its approval of the parties' stipulation and remand this case to the Regional Director for further consideration under The Boeing Co., 365 NLRB No. 154 (2017). The General Counsel and Respondent each filed a response supporting remand.<sup>2</sup>

Having duly considered the matter,

<sup>2</sup> The Respondent also contends that the Board should direct the Regional Director to find that the rules, policies, and handbook provisions at issue are lawful Category I rules under Boeing and dismiss the complaint. Contrary to the Respondent's contention, we find it appropriate to allow the Regional Director to consider this case, in the first instance, in light of our decision in Boeing.

IT IS ORDERED that the Board's Order Approving Stipulation, Granting Motion, and Transferring Proceeding to the Board is revoked and this proceeding is remanded to the Regional Director for Region 28 for further appropriate action.

Dated, Washington, D.C., November 20, 2018.

By direction of the Board:

Roxanne L. Rothschild
Acting Executive Secretary
